Oliver Frianeza used an EBONITE Complete NV drilled at Star Pro Shop in Addison to win the 7th singles title of his 5 year NABI career, this week at ZONE Glendale Heights. It was a very tight competition on the challenging Cheetah pattern that saw only 6 pins difference between 1st and 5th place. Oliver is 29 years old and works as a Surgical Tech at UIC Hospital. Oliver's last title came in November 2009 at Zone Woodridge on the Chameleon pattern.....That's the same pattern & location of next Sunday's tournament. Can he go back to back??
